

HUNTING ETIQUETTE

-- found in Amy Vanderbilt's new revised edition of Etiquette

For big game hunting (deer & moose)
neutral toned heavy duty breeches, boots, & hunting jackets are necessary with either a red hunting cap or a red patch on the back of the jacket or a red handkerchief tied around the shooting arm.

Again, white must not be worn as a flash of white might be mistaken by another hunter for the white of a deer's tail.

In matter of terminology, one "shoots" other birds but "hunts" duck.
You "hunt" deer and other four-footed game.
